ITINERARY

Begin your day in Brownville, Nebraska's oldest, historic, frontier, river town! Visit this charming historical 1854 village. Start at the Whiskey Run Creek Vineyard and Winery. Sip the fine wines, take a tour and enjoy the scenery as the creek flows underneath the 100-year-old barn. Then board the Spirit of Brownville, an old-fashioned riverboat. Take a relaxing narrated cruise along the Missouri River. See the site of the Lewis and Clark encampment on July 15, 1804. Enjoy a buffet lunch aboard the Spirit of Brownville as well. After lunch, celebrate Brownville Village Theatre's 44th season. The theatre was created out of an old church in 1966, but make no mistake, BVT does shows in true rep fashion! With past shows such as Don't Dress for Dinner and Rumors, the 2010 season is sure to please! After the show, take some time to browse or shop the historic downtown of this quaint little village. Return home this afternoon.
